Residency Classification
Land Acknowledgement

We respectfully acknowledge the University of Arizona is on the land and territories of Indigenous peoples.

Today, Arizona is home to 22 federally recognized tribes, with Tucson being home to the O’odham and the Yaqui. Committed to diversity and inclusion, the University strives to build sustainable relationships with sovereign Native Nations and Indigenous communities through education offerings, partnerships, and community service.
Confirm your residency

You are classified as a non-resident for tuition and financial aid purposes.

Note: Not sure if this is correct? Use the Residency Classification Navigator to see if you may qualify for resident classification.
Submit the SORC

Complete the Statement of Residency Classification (SORC) to confirm that you’re an Arizona resident for tuition and financial aid purposes.

Complete the SORC

Need help?

Contact REG-rco@arizona.edu or call 520-621-3113 if you have questions about the SORC or residency status.
Intent – the reason why an individual is domiciled in Arizona.

Domicile – individual’s true, fixed, and permanent home and place of habitation.
Select a name to schedule a zoom or phone call appointment with a residency officer.
Residency Classification Navigator

Uncertain of how your residency status affects your tuition?

Answer a series of yes/no questions to see if you may qualify for resident classification for tuition purposes.
